BANK PRESIDENT COMMITS SUICIDE

New York, Sept. 13.—John W. Castles, president of the Union Trust company and a director of other well known corporations, committed suicide tonight by cutting his throat at the Grand Union hotel.

His body was found shortly before 9 o'clock tonight by his brother, Barton S. Castles, who immediately summoned a physician, but Mr. Castles was beyond aid. He left no note or instructions and his brother ascribed his act to a nervous breakdown.

According to the hotel management, Mr. Castles, accompanied by his brother and a friend, Eli Spring, came to the hotel three days ago and procured adjoining rooms.

Tragedy Is Revealed. The brother intended, according to the hotel authorities, to look after Mr. Castles while he was in such a nervous condition, and Mr. Spring volunteered his assistance.

For some reason the banker was left alone and, on returning, Barton S. Castles found his door locked. In alarm the door was forced open and the tragedy revealed.

Mr. Castles is survived by his widow, Elizabeth, and a daughter and a son, Frances and John.

The company of which Mr. Castles was president is one of the largest of its kind in the city and is situated at No. 80 Broadway, in the heart of the financial district. Up to 1895 it was paying dividends of 50 per cent and is now considered one of the strongest banks in the country. Its surplus and profits amount to $8,139,770 and its loans and discounts to $39,184,690, while the deposits total nearly $60,000,000.

High in Financial World. Mr. Castles also was a director of the Central Park North and East River Railroad company; the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway company; the Hanover National bank of this city and other corporations. He was United States trustee for the Northern Assurance company, limited, of London.

John V. B. Thayer, secretary and second vice president of the Union Trust company, said tonight that Mr. Castles had been in poor health for some months, suffering with a general nervous breakdown. He said that financial matters had no bearing what ever on the case.

Bottle of Acid Found. On a dresser near the bed there was an eight ounce bottle unlabeled but containing a pungent acid. Whether Mr. Castles had taken any of this before cutting his throat had not been ascertained tonight.

Mr. Castles had little connection with the Union Trust company since assuming the presidency of the institution on January 1 last, when he succeeded Edward King.

Not long ago Mr. Castles' condition became so serious that he was sent to a sanitarium at Kerkonkson, N. Y., where he remained for three months. At times he returned to New York, accompanied by an attendant. On Wednesday last he came down on the latest of these trips and for the first time during his illness was allowed to go to the bank today unattended.

An Overworked Man. Alexander S. Cochran, a director of the Union Trust company, speaking officially for that institution, declared the suicide had no bearing whatever upon financial matters. He was simply an overworked man, was Mr. Cochran's explanation.

Coming originally from the south, where he was well known in Texas and Louisiana, Mr. Castles moved to New York to assume the presidency of the Guarantee Trust company several years ago. But in the latter part of last year he resigned this position and on the opening of the new year became president of the Union Trust company.

The Union Trust company numbers among its directors the most prominent men in the city, including W. E. Minn, Roosevelt, James Speyer, Walton Goette, Adrian Inoué, Jr., and others. Augustus W. Keller, the first vice president, has conducted the affairs of the institution during Mr. Castles' illness.

Mr. Castles had large interests in Texas and was at one time president of the Hibernian Trust company of New Orleans.

DUKE READY TO WED MISS ELKINS

Paris, Sept. 13.—A high personage, in touch with previous preliminary arrangements regarding the marriage of the Duke of the Abruzzi and Miss Katherine Elkins, said today that, contrary to the popular impression, the real hitch was not due to objections on the part of the Italian royal family, but to the attitude of Miss Elkins herself.

"If Miss Elkins would accept the duke," said this authority, "there would be no obstacle placed in the way of the marriage by his family. I know the king and the royal family have offered to grant their consent, not to a morganatic union, but to a marriage which would include the privileges and rank for Miss Elkins to which the duke is entitled."

The queen, however, perhaps, was not pleased with the prospect of the duke contracting a union with an American, but her objections would have been withdrawn. The duke's fate rests with Miss Elkins herself. If she would say the word, the duke would be at her side and the marriage would not long be delayed.

FIRE SWEEPS HILLS OF LOS POSAS VALLEY

Oxnard, Cal., Sept. 13.—Fire is sweeping the hills of the Los Posas valley, doing great damage. Several buildings, including one or two residences, have been burned. A telephone message from Mrs. James J. Hitch said that the flames had reached her home and that she had sent her three small children and a hired girl down the canyon, was preparing to flee for her life. Valuable crops have been destroyed.

JOINS WIFE IN DEATH.

New York, Sept. 13.—Oscar Leisner fulfilled a promise made to his wife's coffin when he committed suicide today by shooting himself through the head. At Mrs. Leisner's funeral yesterday just before the casket was closed, Leisner knelt beside it and cried: "I don't care, Carrie, I'll be with you tomorrow and so will Oscar." Today before he shot himself, Leisner tried to find his little son, and his failure to do so may have saved the boy's life.

CHILDREN SHOT BY UNKNOWN FIEND

Utica, N. Y., Sept. 13.—A crime, for which there at present appears to be no explanation, was committed against three Italian children in this city last evening. They are Theresa Procopio, seven years old, who is dead, shot through the heart; Fanny Infusino, four years old, badly wounded in left arm, and Freddy Infusino, two and one-half years old, shot through the bowels and will die.

The last two named are the children of Ercolo Infusino, a grocer in Bleeker street, and the little girl who is dead lived with her parents over the Infusino store. The children had been missing since early last evening and when last seen were talking with an unknown man about forty years of age. The dead body of Theresa Procopio and the wounded Infusino children were found at the bottom of a deep hollow which is spanned by several viaducts.

After Fanny Infusino had been revived she said that last evening a man came along and took her little brother by the hand and asked him to go along a little way, promising he would pay her something nice. The girls followed, attempting to get the child away from the stranger.

IRON BARS CONFINED CHICAGO "WHITE SLAVES"

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Iron bars are being ripped off the windows of disorderly houses by order of Chicago's new chief of police, to whom the Woman's World committee furnished information of the places where white slaves were held prisoners and where white slavery in its crudest form glowers its menace to possible girl victims. Chief Steward had an investigation made of the facts reported by the committee and when they were confirmed he took prompt and vigorous action.

That a traffic in girls, their capture and sale by cadets and procurers to keepers of disorderly houses not only existed but prospered on even international scale was discovered a few years ago when bars and windows were found in a house which had been used as a brothel.

It was then proved that girls who were enticed or tricked into that place had been kept as prisoners, as slaves in commercialized lust and even drugged. They had disappeared from the houses of their friends and relatives. Their tears and pleadings had been in vain and no communication with the world outside the barred windows was permitted.

Nest A. Bell, secretary of the Illinois Vigilance association and a member of the committee, made the discovery from the housewife's photographs of place after place on Armour avenue where grim iron bars across the windows told of white slaves within, and which resulted in energetic official measures.

Raid made by prosecutors for the state and federal governments have confirmed the fact that girl captives often daughters of excellent homes were held by lock and force to the degrading bidding of their procurers and procurers. These methods were not followed in Chicago alone, but in other cities. The barred windows, however, were a basis for the new Illinois act prepared by the Woman's World committee against the detection of girls in such places by force.

Investigations in Boston and other cities show that similar law is needed in nearly every state of the union, and efforts are urged to secure both law and its enforcement.

RESOLUTIONS OF LABOR UNIONS.

Yesterday Afternoon's Proceedings.

In the afternoon a resolution was adopted strongly denouncing the use of sweat shop and other unclean cigars by smokers. The resolutions pointed out that there is a terrible menace in the use of cigars manufactured by foreigners under filthy conditions.

In the evening a social session was enjoyed by the visiting delegates, who were the guests of the Ogden Trades and Labor assembly.

There will be two sessions of the Federation today. Officers will be elected, and the place for holding the next meeting will be selected. A number of resolutions will be introduced, not the least of which will be one relating to the enforcement of the pure food laws, the eradication of the sweat shop and subjects of like nature.

Cigars to Be Shunned.

The resolution adopted at the afternoon session with reference to the use of cigars manufactured under unclean conditions follows:

"Ogden, Utah, Sept. 13, 1909. To the Utah State Federation of Labor.

"Greeting: Your respected and esteemed consideration is desired on the subjoined matter, which should not alone interest the organized workingmen but the public in general. 'Except of a letter to Mr. George W. Perkins, president International Cigar-makers' union, by William Bancker of Springfield, Mass.'

"Being very much impressed with your articles on the Philippine tariff law, I wish to call attention to a phase of the question which, so far as I have seen, has been entirely overlooked, namely, health. I served two years in the army, mostly around Manila, and out of curiosity I visited a number of cigar shops there. Now, every soldier knows the uncleanness of the average Filipino and if you ask him he will tell you that many a poor fellow came home in a box by too close association with them, as they are poison to the white man. They are all affected with a skin disease and a large majority are covered with open sores or scars.

Disease Is Prevalent.

"Leprosy, beri-beri, cholera, bubonic plague and other infectious diseases are, as every one knows, prevalent there. The natives sit half naked and work and scratch, while the air is rank with the smell of decayed fish and rank coconut oil, which the women use on their hair. Now, imagine one of these natives, whose teeth have rotted black by the constant chewing of the betel-nut, biting out heads of cigars, which I took particular notice to see if they did, and using their spittle to help paste the heads on their cigars, and you can form some idea of what the American smokers will get when trust dumps these far-famed Manila cigars on the market. The United States government spends thousands of dollars to quarantine against these Asiatic diseases, and when one leaves the island for this country himself and his effects are thoroughly disinfected, and in the face of all this our lawmakers have put their seal on this law which will put into the mouths of thousands of our citizens a most prolific means of contagion, and if, as I firmly believe, it will be the means of infecting those filthy Asiatic diseases into the blood of the American people, the present administration can thank itself for it. I believe that even the trust cigar smoker, if he has these facts brought forcefully upon him, will think twice before purchasing Filipino made cigars.

Resolutions Are Adopted. "We, the undersigned, delegates to this convention, after thorough investigation of the above letter, are firmly convinced of its authenticity and truthfulness of the statements therein made; and,

"Whereas, tenement house made cigars, as we know by experience, are made under similar conditions as those made by the Filipinos; therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Utah State Federation of Labor, in its convention assembled, recommends to the general public, as a means of insuring health to the smokers, the use of cigars bearing the union label, which is the guarantee of the 'Cigar-makers' union, and under healthful conditions, and also living wages to the workmen. Be it

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions, with the above letter, be forwarded to all affiliated unions of the state and published in the press at large.

Respectfully submitted,

—JOHN M. MARSHALL,

Delegates of the Cigar-makers' Union

367, Ogden, Utah.

—THEO. GIERSE,

Delegate of the Ogden Trades and Labor Assembly."

WILL NOT CONTEST IN TUG OF WAR AGAIN

The following communication, which is self-explanatory, was received yesterday:

"The boilermakers and machinists who participated in the tug of war at the fair, under the auspices of the Labor day committee, will not take part in the continuation of that event on Wednesday night at Sylvan park. 'Having acted in good faith and in conjunction with the Labor day committee, we can see no good reason why the machinists are not entitled to first and the boilermakers to second prize.

"The patty sum involved cuts no figure with us compared with the knockout blow given to organized labor. No working man can afford to allow such bungling. If not double dealing, to go unchallenged. Other things being equal, there is more danger to organized labor in such transactions than in all the oppressive measures the employing class are able to enforce. Your truly,

"B. E. FRANKLIN,

"Machinist.

"T. J. CARROLL,

"Machinist.

ANGUS McDONALD,

"Boilermaker.

JAMES J. O'CONNOR,

SHIPBUILDER DEAD.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 13.—William Moran, the shipbuilder, a member of the firm which built the battleship Nebraska, died today. He was the fourth of the eight Moran brothers to die within eight years.

MINERS PERISH IN DEATH VALLEY

Rhyolite, Nev., Sept. 13.—The bodies of Emory Bodge and Tom Flanz, two miners, who perished of thirst while attempting to cross Death Valley, were found Saturday four miles west of Skiddoo, Cal., by members of the searching party scouring the desert for a brother of President Eldridge of the National Sewing Machine company, who has been lost for three weeks.

The men whose bodies were found left Rhyolite late in August and started across the floor of Death Valley, where the thermometer reaches 130 degrees in the shade during the summer months. They carried two canteens of water each, but this supply must have been exhausted before they had gone half way. Crazed by thirst they wandered about until they were overcome by the heat and lay down to die.

Young Eldridge was attempting to reach this place from his mining claims in the Panamint range. He left his companions three weeks ago. Men from all the desert camps have searched the desert. The burro which he took with him when he started across the valley was found a few days ago, but there was no other trace of the man.

PEARY WAS NOT ALWAYS TRUTHFUL

New York, Sept. 13.—With Dr. Cook homeward bound, Commander Peary now in touch with the correspondents, two swelling streams of conflicting affirmations are now centered on a city already boiling over. Comment and criticism lack nothing of their previous acidity.

Previous assumption that Commander Peary would have the United States navy solidly behind him was not borne out in a letter from Rear Admiral Schley made public today by Captain B. S. Osborn, secretary of the Arctic club of America, of which Dr. Cook is a member. The letter, under date of September 11, from Pocomo Manor, says:

"I like Cook's attitude immensely in this unfortunate, unnecessary and unwise controversy. He certainly has been dignified and manly in the stand he has taken."

Captain Osborn followed up his letter from the admiral tonight with a discussion on "Who Discovered the north pole?"

"Dr. Frederick A. Cook," he said, "was for two years my wife's physician. I saw him two or three times a week and we chatted many hours. If I have ever known a man of integrity, probity, sincerity, it is Dr. Cook."

Peary Departs from Truth.

"I have known also the other fellow

—known him to depart from the truth by large margins."

Dr. Cook's attitude in withholding details of his discovery was attributed to his desire not to anticipate the publication of his book. "But as soon as the other claimant got within reach of the wireless," said the captain, "he sent dispatches to everybody he could think of, but delayed in informing the mothers of the unfortunate who perished during the expedition."

After a meeting of the executive committee of the Arctic Club of America tonight, R. O. Stebbins, its chairman, gave the club's attitude on the affair.

"The Arctic Club of America," he said, "has nothing to do with the controversy. Dr. Cook is the discoverer of the pole and Peary reached there. That is the decision of the club. The discoverer will be honored. Neither side has proved its case to America, but since the Danish government has recognized Dr. Cook we feel that the burden of proof now falls on his opponent."

Will Honor Cook. "The Arctic club will present to Dr. Cook a gold medal two and a half inches in diameter, showing in bas relief Dr. Cook standing on top of the globe waving the Stars and Stripes."

Preparations to honor Dr. Cook are more advanced than those for Peary because the latter's arrival is more distant and his plans as yet more nebulous. Singing societies in Brooklyn have arranged to go down the harbor in a chartered steamer to welcome their hero with lyric praise. Bells will ring and whistles blow from factories, ferries and all the water craft of the bay.

On the other hand, in response to the equally great interest in Peary, preparations are being made at the American museum of natural history here to set apart a special section of the building for a display of Peary's Arctic collections which have been housed in moth-proof vaults for the summer.

BALLINGER WILL STEP DOWN AND OUT.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—A Washington dispatch to the Tribune says: "Secretary Ballinger, it is understood, will retire from the Taft cabinet. This does not mean that his resignation will be immediately accepted. It is the information of his subordinates that the president is not satisfied with the explanations which have been given in regard to his connection with the Cunningham coal tract in Alaska. So far as known, intimation of wrong doing on the part of the secretary of the Interior has not been established."

CHURCH IS DESTROYED.

New Orleans, Sept. 13.—St. John's Catholic church, Dryades and Clio streets, was almost totally destroyed by fire today as the result of a bolt of lightning. Loss 200,000. About fifty people who were in the church at the time were slightly shocked.
